The 2023 Kentucky General Election is extraordinarily consequential for LGBTQ rights in our commonwealth. Kentucky voters have the opportunity to re-elect our state's most pro-LGBTQ Governor Andy Beshear, or his opponent Attorney General Daniel Cameron, who has endangered Kentucky's LGBTQ kids time and again. Take a look inside for some of Governor Beshear's historic highlights benefiting the LGBTQ community in his first term. You can compare the candidates' record by visiting FairnessVotes.com.

C-FAIR, the political action committee of the Fairness Campaign, has endorsed several other champions of LGBTQ rights in both the General and Special Elections on Tuesday, Nov. 7, including former State Rep. Buddy Wheatley for Secretary of State and State Rep. Col. Pam Stevenson for Attorney General, whose fiery floor speeches for transgender youth went viral on social media all throughout the Kentucky General Assembly this year.

Michael Bowman could become Kentucky's first openly-LGBTQ statewide official if he is elected State Treasurer. Along with Kim Reeder for State Auditor and Sierra Enlow for Commissioner of Agriculture, C-FAIR has endorsed one of the strongest slates of state candidates in recent memory. Don't miss doing your part by voting on or before Nov. 7!

Gov. Andy Beshear's Pro-LGBTQ record includes:

- Issuing the strongest pro-LGBTQ Executive Order in Kentucky's history. Issued during Governor Beshear's first Pride Month in office, the EO provided the strongest discrimination protections possible for LGBTQ state workers, building upon previous protections put in place by his father, Governor Steve Beshear.
- Vetoing a sweeping anti-LGBTQ bill aimed at restricting the lives of transgender youth that includes banning access to affirming health care and access to bathrooms. In his veto, Gov. Beshear wrote Senate Bill 150 allows "too much government interference in personal healthcare issues and rips away the freedom of parents to make medical decisions for their children." He warned the bill's repercussions would include an increase in youth suicides: "My faith teaches me that all children are children of God and Senate Bill 150 will endanger the children of Kentucky."
- Speaking out against discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity and supporting a ban on so-called conversion therapy for LGBTQ youth during a historic appearance at the Statewide Fairness Rally in Kentucky's Capitol. Addressing the crowd in the Capitol Rotunda, Gov. Beshear said: "I'm proud to be the first sitting governor to attend this fairness rally."
- Releasing a campaign ad to refute Daniel Cameron's false claims about transgender youth. Beshear reaffirmed facts and his record of support for transgender youth and families: "I've never supported gender reassignment surgery for kids—and those procedures don't happen here in Kentucky...as parents we know what is best for our kids, not politicians."
