Election Constitutional Amendments

Governor Andy Beshear made history this summer by banning the disproven, discredited, and deadly practice of so-called "conversion therapy" on Kentucky's LGBTQ kids. The executive order came after years of State Rep. Lisa Willner's "Youth Mental Health Protection Act" languishing in the Kentucky General Assembly, which refused to protect queer youth in our commonwealth. Andy's bold and decisive action shows that Kentucky kids' lives are too valuable to be left to an anti-LGBTQ legislature, and it proves that state and local elections matter.

Kentuckians can make a huge impact this election by mobilizing to vote "NO" on two dangerous constitutional amendments proposed by the state legislature. Amendment 1 is an anti-immigrant measure rooted in fear-mongering that seeks to ban non-citizen voting, which is already against the law. Amendment 2 would have sweeping consequences for public education in Kentucky—it would allow the legislature to divert public tax dollars from public schools and place them in the hands of private schools that will discriminate against LGBTQ kids and families. Central Kentuckians can protect the Kentucky Supreme Court from a conservative turn by electing Judge Pamela Goodwine, and Bowling Green could finally pass a Fairness Ordinance by electing Patti Minter for mayor.
