Huge news for Kentucky! The National LGBTQ Task Force is bringing their signature Creating Change Conference to Louisville January 27-31, 2027. Heralded as the nation's largest LGBTQ advocacy conference, Creating Change will bring thousands of LGBTQ leaders and activists to our commonwealth from all across the globe. We proudly partnered with the Task Force to announce the conference at this year's Fairness Dinner, where we were joined by Creating Change Director Fernando Z López, Director of Communications Cathy Renna, and Louisville's own Sayre Reece, Director of Executive Planning & Projects at the Task Force.

*"We don't choose our host cities lightly. Each year, we gather where the work is urgent, our presence can be additive, and our movement has something to learn. The Commonwealth of Kentucky is a place where LGBTQ people make up a larger percentage of the population than in states like California, and public support for nondiscrimination protections rivals states like New York. It's also home to some of the earliest nondiscrimination ordinances in the country, and a Fairness movement that has expanded protections city by city through sustained, strategic organizing. Across Kentucky, community organizers, advocates, and activists have built durable infrastructure while navigating escalating state-level attacks, particularly targeting trans communities. This is why we are bringing Creating Change to Louisville." Join us! Learn more & volunteer: thetaskforce.org/creating-change
